Parking

- There is ample parking on site. All the car parks are free of charge to all St. David's Park users. We do ask that all attendees please ensure they are parked in a space and not on any of the grass verges or blocking any entrances and exits.
- After you have parked, the main entrance on foot can be found inside the walled garden, which leads to a short flight of steps.
- Disabled Parking: As you travel towards Building 3 at St. David's Park, there will be a small turning on the left (it's before the one with the visible arch), and there is a disabled parking bay there (see photo of side road below).
- This is the back entrance to Building 3, St. David's Park. Attendees must press the intercom for attention if using this entrance. There is a buzzer entry door where Reception staff will buzz you in. It's the only accessible entrance without steps.

Please note there are no on-site catering facilities at Carmarthen

Do please have a drink and snack at a café of your convenience on the way there/way home to the value of £10.00 and attach the receipt to your travel expenses claim.
